

AWWA Code of Conduct – For all Competitors

In addition to the AWWA Ltd General Code of Conduct, the following requirements must be met by competitors during any activity held or sanctioned by the AWWA Ltd, or as a rider/participant in any activity held by or under the auspices of the organisation or one of its affiliates:

- Abide by the principles of the AWWA Code of Conduct for the Welfare of the Horse.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow riders, competitors, officials, volunteers and spectators.
- Do not tolerate acts of aggression.
- Respect the talent, potential and development of fellow riders and competitors.
- Care for and respect the equipment provided to you as part of any AWWA Ltd event.
- Conduct yourself in a professional manner relating to language, temper and punctuality, be courteous, kind and always set a good example in dress and behaviour.
- Maintain high personal behaviour standards at all times.
- AWWA Officials have the discretionary power to disqualify person(s) responsible or, request a spectator's removal from an AWWA event, if they assess that person(s) to be in breach of the AWWA Code of Conduct(s).
- Abide by the rules and respect the decision of the official, making all appeals through the formal process and respecting the final decision.
- Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of the AWWA Ltd General Code of Conduct. Refer to the AWWA M&A / AWWA Constitution on the AWWA Membership website page for guidelines.
