

AUSTRALIAN REPRESENTATIVE - 2019 AWHN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS AND CLASSIFICATION TOUR - HEATHER ADCOCK (VICTORIA)

Heather Adcock has been an AWHN Mare Classifier for many years and also operates the very successful Kalimna Warmblood Stud located in Tawonga, NE Victoria.

Heather Adcock commenced riding lessons at the age of 7 at Kenmore Riding School at Pullenvale in the outer western suburbs of Brisbane. Heather then began competing in Dressage at the age of 12 and was Queensland State Pony Club Dressage Champion on more than one occasion on a 15hh pinto called Painted Warrior who went on to compete to Medium level in EFA competitions.

Heather then commenced her love affair with warmbloods and purchases a warmblood called Claus who Heather trained and competed to Intermediare I level. In 1988 Claus was Queensland Dressage Horse of the Year and winner of the Elementary trophy and member of the Qld State Team.

Heather then trained and campaigned the Herr Dominator son Oakdean Domaneur who also went to Intermediare level. His career highlights include Royal Show champion, runner up Qld Novice Champion, Sunshine Coast Novice Champion and he was also a member of the Qld State Team competing at FEI level dressage.

Heather has prepared many young horses bred by her stud for Dressage, which have gone on and been very successful with their new owners. Kalimna Warmblood Stud has produced winners and place getters for the Young Horse Class at Sydney CDI, Qld Young Horse Championships, Dressage With the Stars, AWHN National Championships, Gold Coast 2* Dressage competition, and Singleton Championships to name a few.

Heather currently stands 2 stallions at Kalimna - Kalimna Reflections and Legend of Loxley (IMP) who is currently competing at Advanced level.

